A NEGRO THIEF CAUGHT.—A man who had decoyed four negroes from their master in Jackson county, Mo., was caught not long since near the Iowa line. He was taken back and lodged in jail at Independence to await his trial. He confessed, we learn, he was under wages at $40 per month, in the employ of the Massachusetts Aid Society. Their aid, we presume, will benefit this poor dupe but little in the difficulty in which he is now found.
