CURIOSITIES OF THE CENSUS.—Mr. John Owens, who took the census of Green Township, has kindly furnished us with the following curious statistics concerning the census of Green Township:

The oldest person is Katie Woods, a colored woman living at Skinner's bridge. She claims to be one hundred and three years old. She is totally blind, but she is stout and active and does nearly all her own housework. She formerly belonged to Capt. Kemp Woods, of Clay county. She was not a body servant of G. Washington, Esq.

Charles Wildasin, a white man, aged eighty-three years, lives at New Market and works every day at his trade as a chair maker.

Of surnames William leads the list, there being 156 persons who answer to that name.

There are 126 Johns; 112 Jameses and 60 Thomases.

There are 144 Marys; 69 Sarahs and 68 Elizabeths.

There were 29 babes without names at the time of taking the census.

Robert E. Lee has 31 namesakes; Stonewall Jackson, 2; Jeff. Davis 2, and Dixie Davis, 1.

Grant has one namesake, a colored boy, and Lincoln has 3, two of whom are colored. The entire population of the Township is 2,366.
