A Runaway.

Yesterday morning a Platte county farmer who was on his way home from the city with his family in a wagon met with a serious accident. He was driving along the reservation on the road leading to the bridge when suddenly turning a bend in the road he came upon a colored soldier who was standing in the middle of the road practicing the manual of arms with a gun. The farmers team becoming frightened and wheeling about upset the wagon throwing the occupants out, bruising all more or less and breaking a leg of one child. The horses then ran away breaking the wagon to splinters and coming to the city were stopped on Dakota street.
