Local Odds and Ends.

Jim Tolbert, colored, once of this city, was jailed Monday at Leavenworth, charged with being one of a number of boys who raided the old Union stove works and carried away a wagon load of iron. He, with Blind Willy, was once arrested on a charge of stealing a horse from a colored man here, which they took to Leavenworth. Sheriff Dillingham arrested them and got the horse. They were let off with a reprimand, and Blind Willy has behaved himself, but Tolbert seems not to have done so well.
