Bunt Susan Dead

Susan Delaware, an old colored woman of the Hampton neighborhood, died at her home on Monday, February 7, 1921, after an illness of about three weeks with pneumonia. Aunt Susie was a well known character of that vicinity, where she had made her home for many years and was a well liked and much respected old darkey. The funeral was held Tuesday at the colored church in Platte City and interment in the city cemetery at this place.
