Mrs. Alice Jenkins

Mrs. Alice Jenkins was born in Clay county, Missouri, May 22, 1850. She was the daughter of John D. Hall and Eliza Adkins Hall.

On December 19, 1866, she was united in marriage to Thos. E. Jenkins of Platte City, Mo., and of this union four children were born, all of whom survive their mother: Dr. John H. Jenkins of Liberty, Mo., Mrs. Wm. Harwood and Mrs. S. C. Hoover, both of Denver, Colo., and O'Fallon Jenkins of Kansas City, Mo.

Mrs. Jenkins departed this life at Denver, August 15, 1923, in her 74th year.

For more than 25 years she lived in Liberty, where she has a large circle of kindred and friends who remain to mourn her loss.

When but a girl she united with the Christian church at Platte City, and she continued steadfastly in the faith to the close of her life.

The funeral services were held at the home, on West Franklin street, conducted by Rev. M. Moore of Belleview, at 10:30 a. m., Friday.

Mrs. E. L. Black sang very tenderly "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere."

There were a large number of floral offerings. The entire service was tender and impressive.

For this blessed good mother, "The race is run; the crown is won; and now comes the rest."

Among those at the funeral of Mrs. Jenkins were Dr. and Mrs. J. M. Adkins, Excelsior Springs; Dr. Frank Hall and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Elisha Estes, Postmaster Bayliss Steele, Dr. H. E. Thomason, Mrs. Vinton and son, Mrs. Kate Moore, Mrs. R. S. Spahr, Mr. and Mrs. James E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. George T. Jones, Mr. and Miss Harvey, Mr. and Miss Yates, Kansas City; Mrs. Ross McKinley, St. Louis.

Aunt Martha Lewis, and old colored woman who was reared in Mrs. Jenkins' family and whose mother before her also was a faithful servent to the family, attended the funeral also.
