—The members of the colored Methodist church served an excellent dinner in the dining room of their church on Thursday evening of last week. The dinner was enjoyed by some sixty of the white people of the town who had previously purchased their tickets to the dinner. The dining room and tables were neatly and tastily decorated, the chicken was fried to a turn and the entire dinner was of a very high class. The dinner was served at $1 per plate, and was worth it. All the proceeds went to the benefit of the church. The church expects to have an all day meeting, with basket dinner and home coming next Sunday, at which they expect to entertain the members of the colored churches from several points.
