—Edward Neal Stout, colored, a grandson of Mrs. Ashby Johnson, who was accidently shot by Harry Mayberry, a little over a week ago, died last Sunday and the funeral was held Tuesday. The boys were close friends and hunted together a great deal. On this occasion the shot gun was accidently discharged, the charge entering the hip and ranging toward the groin. The unfortunate boy suffered for about a week, but no permanent relief could be gained, and his death occurred on last Sunday as stated.
