A stranger driving into Platte City Monday in a high powered limousine, stopped in front of one of the leading Cafes in this city and seeing an apparently unemployed young colored boy nearby said, "Will you step into the Cafe and get me a couple of sandwiches," the stranger giving him a five dollar bill. After much delay the stranger became apprehensive and making inquiries fround that the negro youth had gone in the front door and out the back, hired a taxi to take him to Weston. The Sheriff was called, the negro apprehended in Weston and is now resting in the County Jail. Perhaps the negro thought the sandwiches one got in Weston superior to those purchased in Platte City and went over after them.
