POCKET BOOK FOUND.

FOUND on the new cut road leading from Liberty to Platte City, near the line between Clay and Platte counties, a calf skin pocket book containing the following papers: A note of $89 90 cts., with a credit ot $56 75 cts., payable to Henry M. Hendorson, signed by John Buchanan & Co. This note was executed for the hire of a negro. Another note dated at Lexington, Mo., payabable to Henry M. Henderson without any signature—another is an order on the estate of Jackson Tandy in favor of Henry H. Henderson; another is a note with the signature torn off, payable to John Brag. The owner can by calling at this office and paying for this advertisement obtain said pocket book and papers.

Sept. 12, 1846.
