NOTICE.

I HAVE in my possession a sorrel Horse, about three years old, 14½ hands high, a blazed face, both hind feet white, no other marks or brands perceivable; also a bundle containing clothing and a Watch supposed to be gold, a small Pistol and a Hatchet. Said property was taken by me from a negro, who had escaped from his master, and whom I could not secure. The owner can have the property, by proving the same and paying expenses.

PERRY CREEK.

Plattsburg, Mo., June 23, 1855.—1:w3

N. B. There was another negro in company.
