NEGRO TAKEN UP.

TAKEN UP IN ST. JOSEPH, MO., APRIL 15th, 1859, one Negro Boy, named JIM, aged 25 years, about 5 feet 10 inches high, weight 180 or 190 pounds: says he belongs to Frank Roulett, of Lunenburg county, Virginia, and says he left his master in the month of October last. He is a dark copper color, has a scar on his left thumb caused by the cogs of a steam saw mill. Said boy has round features, and is very sprightly.

Unless said Frank Roulett, or his owner comes forward within three months from the date of this advertisement, and proves said slave and pays all charges the said Negro Boy Jim, will be exposed for sale at the Court House door in the City of St. Joseph, county of Buchanan, Mo., for cash in hand: which said sale will be on the fifteenth day of July, A. D. 1859, between the hours of 9 o'clock, A. M., and 5 o'clock, P. M. of said day. M. D. MORGAN, ap15 d1t&w3m Sheriff Buchanan County.
