EMANCIPATION AND COMPENSATION.—A party of contrabands from Clinton and Platte counties made their appearance on the Island Sunday morning, and were ferried over. There were several skiff loads, and all of them had a horse or mule, which it is supposed was given them to aid their immigration from Missouri. A number enlisted in Co. A, 2d Colored, and later in the day made their appearance on the streets in Uncle Sam's uniform. Missouri negroes have no idea of waiting till 1870 for freedom, and do not believe that compensation is wrong, and mean to place themselves where they can maintain the liberty they gained.—About twenty in all crossed over "Jordan."—Leavenworth Conservative.
