THE RECORD CONTINUED.—The Weston Sentinel says in its Thursday's issue:

Yesterday a civil warrant was issued for the arrest of ten runaway slaves belonging to the Wyman family, and two belonging to W. Wilson of Clinton county. They were arrested by the Sheriff in Well's pasture, and brought to the city, and put in confinement. There was much excitement consequent on their arrest and imprisonment; it being so evident that there would be an attempt to rescue them, it was deemed prudent to release them at about half past seven o'clock last evening.
