Kansas State Fair.

From our Leavenworth exchanges, we gather the following items: For draft horses, Ben. W. Hiatt took the first premium, and Dr. Drinkwater the second. For stallions, five-year old, W. S. Kerr took the first premium and G. M. Killam the second. For two-year old stallions, Mr. Lattin, of Leavenworth, took the first premium and H. C. Learnard, of Neosho Falls, the second. For Mares, three-year old, David Smith, a free colored man from Platte county, Mo., took the first premium; also on yearling mares.

Mrs. Col. Jennison took the first premium for the best mare under saddle.

An Irish potato was exhibited which weighed eight pounds.

The receipts of the Fair for Wednesday were over one thousand dollars.
