OLIVER DEIFENDORF Esq. of Leavenworth, the popular Military Claim Agent has been in our city for a few days as has also, Mr. T. H. Uperman, representing the firm of T. M. O'Brien Esq.

These gentlemen are collecting the claims of loyal owners of slaves enlisted in the Federal army. They have obtained at great tronble and expense the rolls of the two Kansas negro regiments and by this means any slave can be identified. This is a facility we believe no other agents possess, and we advise all parties interested to put their claims in the hands of these gentlemen at once as but little time will elapse before the Commissioners appointed by the Government will be prepared to audit them.
