A Negro Boy Dangerously Wounded.

On last Friday morning, a negro boy in the employ of Hon. E. H. Norton, becoming offended at Mr. N's. little son about twelve or fourteen years old, commenced an attack upon him, throwing rocks, &c. Although the negro boy was several years older and larger than the little white boy, the little fellow made a successful charge on the negro and striking him with a base-ball club, placed him hors du combat. The negro is still lying in a dangerous condition.
