A NEGRO LYNCHED.

Special Dispatch to The Chicago Tribune.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 13.—Late last night Charles Diddell, a negro, was lynched at Weston, in Platte County, for a nameless crime committed upon Nancy Stilwell, a white woman, aged 19. Diddell left the girl for dead with a crushed skull, and when arrested admitted the crime. At a late hour a mob took him from the Sheriff to a high bridge, and tied one end of a rope around his neck and the other to the end of a stringer. A brother of the young girl then pushed him into eternity, and this morning his body was cut down by the Coroner.
