A Kind Act.

During the long and painful illness of Mr. W. C. Baker he was constantly attended and waited on by Robert Batey, one of our most worthy colored men. Recognizing Bob's faithfullness. Mr John C. Atchison of Gower, one of the heirs of Mr. Baker's estate sent Bob a check for $50 and a few days ago another check for the same amount with the accompanying letter which it explains itself.

GOWER, MO., March 8. 1894.

ROBERT BEATTIE,

Sir:—Please find enclosed my check on Gower Bank for fifty dollars, which I send you as a small recognition of your kindness and faithfulness in nursing Mr. Baker while sick.

There are some things that money cannot pay for, and kindness to the sick is one of them. So I am not attempting to pay you, it is only to show, that your kindness was appreciated. Yours truly,

J. C. ATCHISON,

This is a kindly act and reflects great credit on the generosity of Mr. Atchison as Bob had already been a lowed wages for his services.
