Granville Kinney.

Granville Kinney, an honorable and respected colored man, died at his home near Linkville, Tuesday 28th of Sept. 1897. Granville was for many years the trusted and faithful servant of Uncle Eli Link. He was one of those old-fashioned colored men who never lost his respect and love for his old master and family, and up to the time of Mr. Link's death Granville, though farming for himself, never failed to advise and council with his old master. Granville Kinney was an honest and honorable citizen and had the full respect of all. His remains were buried in the 2nd Creek burying grounds by the colored societies.
