A HARVEST HOME DINNER
AT THE
A. M. E. CHURCH GROUNDS
ON THE HILL IN PLATTE CITY, AUG. 26.

A grand affair to be given by the members and friends of the church, with plenty of refreshments on the grounds for colored and white people who favor us with their presence. We have secured the services of Prof. W. T. Vernon, principal of Quindaro College, Kansas, to speak to us. Other speakers will also be present.

Music will be furnished by the colored band of Platte City. Speaking out doors under the arbor. Two prizes will be contested for by three ladies and two gentlemen. Dinner 25c. Refreshments at night. Admission 10c. Everybody invited. By order of the Committee.

J. W. LEWIS, Pastor,
