Born, to Mr, and Mrs. George Washington Murray, Saturday, February 17, 1912, twins—a son and a daughter. And George says the tips of their ears are black. Dr. Al. D. Lowry, assisted by Dr. W. H. Van Meer, attended. The twins are fourth and fifth in George's second family. In age the father is several years past the three score line. He was born a slave in Platte City, Mo., and was among those who fought nobly in the war. He will be the happiest man in town when that dollar a day pension comes in.
