How's This?

Illinois coal for threshing. Known the world over as the best steam coal. Many times better than the Iowa, and much cheaper. No waste, no slack. Uniform size chunks ready for the fire. Think of a saving of 25 per cent in the cost of your fuel this year.

Administrator's Notice

Notice is hereby given that Letters of Administration upon the Estate of Jane Burkhart, deceased, have been granted to the undersigned, by the Probate court of Platte county, Missouri, bearing date the 28th day of May, 1913.

All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit them to me for allowance within six months from the date of said letters or they may be precluded from any benefit of such estate and if said claims be not exhibited within one year from the date of the publication of this notice, they will be forever barred. John L. Carmack,

44t4 Administrator.

Aunt Jane Burkhart

This old colored woman died at her home in north Platte City Monday May 26, 1813. She was a former slave slave of Fielding Cockrill, but for many years has been the family servant of Senator N. B. Anderson and family. She was a great favorite of the Senator's, family having been the trusted friend of his children and grandchildren. Aunt Jane was respected by all who knew her, both white and black. She was a faithful member of the A. M. E Church. Her funeral was preached Tuesday by Rev. A. L. Lowell, of the A. M. E. church, assisted by Rev. Thornly of the Baptist church, after which her remains were placed in the city cemetery.

Ice Cream Supper

The Methodist ladies of Hillsboro church will give an ice cream supper next Saturday night, May 31, in the Arthur Stucky pasture. All invited to be present
