SCHOOL STARTS WELL

The Platte City Schools started off in fine shape Tuesday of last week and after a week of general adjustments and arrangements is running along the smoothest kind. The new superintendent and two new teachers are fitting right in and start their school work with us with good impression and the commendation of all. The former teachers are taking up their work in their usual fine spirit. Even the pupils seem glad to be back at school. The enrollment in the grades is 88, in the freshman class 17, sophomores 31, juniors 6 and seniors 16. The Dunbar colored school has 18, making a total of pupils 176, The enrollment in high school is 70 against 73 last year, while the senior class has 16 against 14 last year.
