99-YEAR-OLD VET SUCCUMBS TO PNEUMONIA

William Scott Dies in Leavenworth After Short Illness

LEAVENWORTH. — William Scott, 99-year-old veteran of the Civil war, succumbed to pneumonia Thursday, April 20, after a short illness at his home, 406 Kickapoo street. He was a member of G company, Seventy-ninth regiment of the U. S. Colored Infantry.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon, April 24, Chaplain A. P. Janes conducting the services. Burial was in the Soldiers' Home cemetery.

Mr. Scott was born in Platte county, Mo., August 14, 1833. He is survived by one daughter, Miss Marie Scott of Chicago.

The will of Mr. Scott, filed and admitted to probate court Saturday, April 22, left one dollar to Mrs. Scott and the remainder of the estate, consisting of household furniture and $100 in cash, to George R. Fields "in consideration of his kind attention and assitance," the will states. The will was made August 6, 1932.

Fields was also named executor
