CELEBRATES 99th BIRTHDAY.—Shown above are the many expressions from friends which were received by Mrs. Lucy Frances Bailey (right) on the occasion of her 99th birthday which was celebrated on Sept. 27, 1951. Mrs. Bailey was born a slave on a plantation in Platte County, Missouri. She has traveled extensively and spent much of the early 1900's in Old Mexico. At one time her family was attacked by Pancho Villa on one of his raids, their home was burned, and members of her family were brutally assaulted. She makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Blakemen, 2449 Harrison. Mrs. Blakeman is shown on the left.
