Deposition of Lewis Harness, a witness produced and sworn, at the office of Hyram Roberts, a Justice of the peace within and for Centre Township in the county of Buchanan and State of Missouri, in the Town of Sparta, in the Township and county aforesaid, on Monday the 21st day of November A.D 1842 between the rising and setting of the sun of said day in a case now pending before Barnett one of the Justices of the peace within and for Weston Township in the county of Platte and State aforesaid in which James & Anthony is plaintiff and Jeremiah C Thruston is defendant on the part of the plaintiff.

Lewis Harness, Witness says. That Jeremiah C Thruston left his residence in Buchanan County about the first of October 1842. About this time he told witness he should have to go below, but witness does not now remember where. About the same time he come to witness and proposed to borrow one hundred dollars, alledging as a reason, that he owed a debt in Weston, which he wished to pay, and with the residue he wished to purchase a claim of Isaac Reams, lying near Sparta in Buchanan County. Witness loaned him the one hundred dollars, and took as a pledge some drugs and medicines. He also promised Witness, to place some notes which he had or would get, in the hands of the constable of Centre Township and obtain his receipt for them, which receipt he was to deliver to witness as a further security for his debt. He left the county without complying with his promise. Witness states that he lives in Buchanan County and on the State of Missouri, about twenty three miles from Weston.

Deposition of Isse Reams, a Witness produced and sworn, at the office of Hiram Roberts, a Justice of the peace within and for Centre Township in Buchanan County in the State of Missouri, in the Town of Sparta in the Township and county aforesaid on monday the 21st day of November AD 1842 between the rising and setting of the Sun of said day, in a case now pending before Barnett, one of the Justices of the peace within and for Weston Township in the county of Platte and State aforesaid, in which James C Anthony is plaintiff and Jeremiah C Thruston is defendant on the part of the plaintiff.

Isse Reams Witness Says That Jeremiah C Thruston come to Witnesses house, and proposed to buy his claim, about the 15th of sept 1842 The agreement between him and Witness was that Witness was to give him possession of his claim within two months: For which Thruston was to give Witness one hundred dollars, and a horse. The money was to be paid and the horse delivered in a week after he was at Witnesses house. Thruston told Witness that he (Thruston) would go to Platte County, and return in a short time and ~~comply~~ bring up the horse which Witness was to have for his claim. He went to Platte County and returned without bringing the horse, alledging as an excuse that he had to be in Sparta to have his deposition taken, and that he had forgotten the fact until late in the day when it was too late to lead a horse up and reach Sparta in time He said he could get the money which Witness was to have from his Fatherinlaw; and went to Platte a second time, and promised to return in a few days and pay the money and deliver the horse. He went to Platte and Witness has never seen him since Thruston solicited a a Spot on Witness claim on which to build his house and dig his well.

Deposition of Henry H Mess, a witness produced and sworn, at the office of Ryan Roberts, a Justice of the peace within and for Centre Township in the County of Buchanan and State of Missouri, in the Town of Sparta, in the Township and county aforesaid, on monday the 21st day of November A.D. 1842, between the rising and setting of the sun of said day, in a case now pending before Barnett one of the Justices of the peace within and for Weston Township in the County of Platte and State aforesaid, in which James A Anthony is plaintiff and Jeremiah C Thruston is defendant on the part of the plaintiff.

Henry H Mess Witness says, that Jeremiah C Thruston left his residence in Buchanan County sometime between the first and twelfth of October 1842. Sometime previous to his departure, Thruston told Witness that he should have to go to Morgan County for the purpose of attending to a suit, but was not to start until some two weeks after he did start. Witness never heard Thruston say in earnest that he was going any where else. Thruston owed the witness something over one hundred dollars, which he promised witness he would pay about the middle of October. Thruston told witness that he had made arrangements with his father in law to obtain money with which to buy a claim, and had also mentioned to his fatherinlaw the debt he owed Witness. Thruston left without paying witness or saying any thing more to him upon the subject. Witness is aware that Thruston owed several other persons besides himself. Witness has heard Thruston say that he was three or four hundred dollars worse than nothing. Thruston made this last declaration to witness within a month or two before his departure. Witness states that Thruston was a practising physician, and that he is of opinion that his practice was on the decline, which was perhaps worth three or four hundred dollars.

Witness states that he has an Attachment pending against J. Thruston.

Witness states that he resides in Buchanan County and State of Missouri, and near twenty five miles from Weston.

On Interpleader.

And the said Tuttle & Moss, by their attorney come and move the court here to instruct the Jury as follows, that is to say.

1st If they believe from the evidence, that Baker delivered the negro in controversy to Thruston, who was to have her until Baker could collect money in Kentucky, and buy him another, then, until this condition was complied with by Baker, the negro was Thrustons, was liable for his debts, and they must so find in their verdict.
