deposes & says.

Some time in the year 1860, [1861] there was a suit pending between myself & John E. Pitt for the partition & division of a Negro Woman & two children, in the Platte Circuit Court. Mr Bryant at that time was Sheriff of Platte Co., Mo.
The Court ordered the Sale of the said negros, and said Bryant advertised the same for Sale. But there was no sale from the fact that there ~~Sale Pitt~~ was no correct. After that ~~we sold the negro woman & Children~~ ~~to Asa Hughes~~ James Frost (acting as agent for John E. Pitt), and myself sold the negro at private sale to

Arch Hughes. He received the money. Hughes paying me my part and Mr Pitts his, that is to Foot for Pitt. James M Moon
