My dear Mr. Johnson.

I am quite ill this morning, it is impossible for me to leave my room to come to you, I will communicate with you as soon as I am able to do so.

The oppressive heat of yesterday was too much for me.

With many regrets I am

Dear Mr Johnson

I thank you for your interest in my recovery from the ill turn I had in N. Y. I feel able to try it over again - meaning of course - to be more careful of myself. I found the same edition of Lord Armstrong's work in our Library and have read it carefully.
It makes no reference to the discoveries I have made and in no way conflicts with the article I will be more than glad to give Lord Armstrong due credit for what he has done in a suitable manner in the article after we have decided upon what can be done with it.

I feel greatly indebted to Mr Tesla for bringing my attention to a work that I would have had to apologize for not knowing about it.

I am also indebted to you for the pleasure of meeting so very estimable a man - Mr Tesla.

I expect to be in New York about the middle of this week and hope to be able to come to a satisfactory decision both as to the article and photographs.

Yours very sincerely

J. B. Kinsaid

Dear Mr Johnson

Your very pleasant letter of the 11 has been forwarded to me here. I have forwarded it to Miss Parker who I am sure will take much pleasure in reading it and will make the changes you suggest. The only reason I have, for not writing the article myself was as you say that my technical methods of expression could never be used in such a paper. I therefore choose a layman instead.

I assure you I am very sincerely yours

Dear Mr Johnson.

I am so ill, that I feel it imprudent to remain here any longer. I am returning home tonight on the boat. Will you kindly take care of photographs, putting them in box, face down; until I communicate with you. Sincerely
