Did you know?

1. Red Wing Arts Festival is organized by Red Wing Arts?

   Red Wing Arts provides numerous community arts events such as the Summer Concerts in the Park and operates a gallery and shop in the Historic Train Depot.

2. Red Wing Arts is 65 years old!

   Founded by Red Wing resident Marge Vogel in 1952, Red Wing Arts has been supporting artists and arts lovers for well over a half century.

3. Who benefits from the Red Wing Arts Festival?

   Everyone does! The Festival benefits the over 100 artists, entertainers and demonstrators participating in the Festival as well as boosting local businesses and the greater community. 10,000 art lovers come to the Festival each fall to enjoy the best from regional artists set in the small-town atmosphere of Red Wing.

Red Wing Arts Association is now RED WING ARTS

RED WING ARTS

After 65 years of service to the arts and artists in Red Wing, we'd like to reintroduce ourselves. Today, Red Wing Arts Association is now Red Wing Arts!

We're proud of the support given to our artists for these last six decades and to expanding those services to Red Wing's creative community. Red Wing Arts has been building and creating arts experiences for the entire city, from the Veteran's Memorial in Levee Park, to Pollinator Park on Main Street, to our summer Concerts in Central Park, and to the annual Arts Festival each fall. You can find examples of our work and connections with Red Wing throughout the city.

In the coming year, we'll share our vision for the future. With our fellow arts organizations, we are excited to be part of Red Wing's extraordinary arts scene. For more information you can visit our website at www.redwingarts.org or follow us on Facebook. Sign up for our newsletter and feel free to contact us with your ideas, suggestions or questions.

Thank you.

Red Wing Arts Festival is sponsored, in part, by the City of Red Wing. It is made possible by the voters of Minnesota through a grant from the Minnesota State Arts Board, thanks to a legislative appropriation from the arts and cultural heritage fund.
