2006 Garden Tour
Gardens Locations

"Art at the Depot"

Red Wing Arts Association

1. Carol Duff, 439 Main Street, Downtown Red Wing, MN
This downtown garden was inspired by Vincent Van Gogh a statue of whom stands easel in hand, candles in his hat, preparing to paint the beautiful stone waterfall that cascades down the hill.

2. Amy and Ryan Olson, 31549 County 2 Boulevard, South of Red Wing MN (Near Frontenac)
Amy, owner of Scenic Spaces, Inc., has a local landscaping and floral design business. Her huge 100% organic garden includes several distinctive hardscape features including a large cedar pergola, lovely rock pathways that define and connect the numerous kitchen and flower gardens.

3. Jeanne and Chuck Bergner, 1315 Red Oak, Red Wing, MN
A prolific garden has replaced front and back lawns. Follow the pathways edged by boulders, a delightful mix of shade and sun perennials, conifers and boxwood. Unique flowering containers and small water features provide added interest.

4. Karen and John Weaver, 1479 Hillside Drive, Red Wing, MN
A small, sloping city lot, with terraced gardens has become a private paradise complete with small pond and waterfall. Lovely cedar arbors, pergolas and trellises enclose their garden abundant with an impressive assortment of perennials and annuals.

5. Sue and Jerry Diercks, 4226 Roberts St., Red Wing, MN
This delightful cottage garden is surrounded by a picket fence, a vegetable garden and a water garden complete with waterfall. The stones around the water come from Jerry's original family farm.

During the Tour: Passports are available at Lily's Coffee House & Flowers, 419 West 3rd St. or at the Red Wing Arts Association Gallery at the Depot starting at 10:00 am. Journey through five splendid gardens featuring regional artists, master gardeners and musicians.

After the Tour: Visit the Silent Auction at Lily's Coffee House between July 21 and August 14. Cast your bids for your favorite garden-inspired artwork created by artists in the gardens.

A special thanks to Lily's Coffee House for their generous support helping this event to bloom and grow!
