Is it Art?
You decide.

What is Art to you?

Is it Mozart and Michelangelo? or Pink Floyd and Picasso? Do you like portraits or landscapes? Poetry or Pop Art?

The Red Wing Arts Association is committed to fostering all the arts in Red Wing: music, painting, drama, photography, sculpture, dance, and literature.

As a member of the Arts Association you have a voice. Your ideas can help shape the community. Your involvement can help insure that your vision of art finds an audience, whether that vision is Classical or Avant Garde.

It isn't just for artists — it's for everyone.

The Red Wing Arts Association sponsors artists in the schools, special readings, scholarships, gallery showings, classes, concerts, and a wide variety of other activities.

In our spacious new Center for the Arts in downtown Red Wing, regional artists can display their latest works for the public to see.

We have major events every season. During the summer you can hear our Concerts in the Park each week for five weeks. Every autumn we sponsor our Fall Festival of Arts at Bay Point Park. And when the snow flies, we hold our annual Christmas ConsARTium, where you can find the perfect Christmas gift.

Even if you can't draw a straight line . . .

There are lots of other ways you can participate in the arts. Attend classes and workshops in such diverse areas as photography or calligraphy, journal writing or quilting. You can help run the gallery or assist with events. Or join one of the many committees within the organization, each designed to further the arts.

We need you!

Your contribution and involvement can help encourage the growth of the arts in Red Wing.
