

34 Hamilton Rd.
Arlington, MA 02174 1/13/83

Dear Jane & Jean,

It was sooo nice
visiting with you on the last day of the year!

Both Martha & I enjoyed in the Elston
household the warmth,
meeting charming Cindy (?sp) who gives superb directions, the 3

something about which you haven't lived. When I think about Cheever Hemingway Updike — the stuff they write about is in essence what they've lived. It's tough.

Martha joins in wishing you all the best.
Hug in, Jane.

Winston

2
unmagnificent view, that unmagnificent cat, etc - Magnificent!

It was touching listening to Bert's voice again — the humor, the integrity, the mystic. It was all there.

And thanks, Jane, for sharing with us some of your literary achievements.
I agree with you about the Indian story — the most difficult of all creative tasks in writing is attempting