Dear Mr. Oka:

The Suroto Bank of California have sent you a draft of 104,710 yens.
ON ACCOUNT WITH:
I hope it has reached you by now. My apologies for the delay. It was
Ms. Stella Patri
caused by the customs office who failed to notify me that the package Hand Bookbinding, Conservation and Restoration had arrived until ten days later.

1828 Mason St.
Many, many thanks for the trouble this order has caused. The 200
San Francisco, Ca. 94133 sheets will be enough. I am indeed fortunate to be able to obtain this paper through you. Should future orders be too time consuming please do not hesitate to let me know. Perhaps I could order direct 20 sheets of Kurodani paper @ 4204 $84,000 from the paper maker.

My warm greeting to you, your family, Nell and all the other young Packaging and mailing people who are privileged working with you. 20,710
