

Proclamation

WHEREAS: San Francisco is proud of its impressive citizenry, many of whom devote their time, talents and energies to our community; and

WHEREAS: STELLA NICOLE PATRI, mother of San Francisco's renowned architect Piero Patri, has served San Francisco with great distinction and ability as an expert bookbinder; and

WHEREAS: STELLA NICOLE PATRI went to Rome and studied paper restoration, France for lessons in finishing, and went to England to study book restoration -- making her one of our City's most cosmopolitan experts in every aspect of this ancient and venerated craft; and

WHEREAS: STELLA NICOLE PATRI, who was born on November 1, 1896, is being honored by friends and family on Saturday, November 1, 1986, who are gathering to celebrate her 90th birthday; now

THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT I, Dianne Feinstein, Mayor of the City and County of San Francisco, do hereby proudly proclaim November 1, 1986 as STELLA NICOLE PATRI DAY IN SAN FRANCISCO, do wish her a very happy birthday and thank her for her outstanding public services.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Seal of the City and County of San Francisco to be affixed this twenty-seventh day of October, nineteen hundred and eighty-six.
