

Friday

Uptown - had to buy wool under wear - so cold. To Marlborough Gallery to see. Oscar Kokoschka.
Mrs. Lubet had studied with him this summer. His water flower colors are wonderful. Didn't com. for oils. To National Gallery to B. M. then to Primavera to see exhibition of Thailand.
Beautiful things - wind mobile, kites, baskets, silks - beautiful but all very expensive.

Saturday

Stayed in all day - Read Sydney Cockerell's Repairing of Books, checked on leather to be sure it is P.I.R.A. tested they all are.

Sunday Nov. 13

Cleaned room, sewed book - closed another & worked on lettering. Katherine soaked listened Radio - 2 minutes of Silence for Memorial of fallen dead.
Packed tea cozy for Mother scarf for Dildas. Rinsed went to bed early - Right foot & knee bothering me - painful the cushion of big toe is swollen don't know what causes it.

Monday -

School - Kelling along in lettering - Doing little nutmeg tree for Katherine's niece Aunt. Planning Christmas cards. Letter from Edgar Mansfield - leaves for N.Z.
to-day so will not see him.
Very friendly letter. Rapunzel.
Tuesday - nice - one rain shower

Schools four vols looking like books now. Can work on other books after these are finished. Letter from Minnie & Alicia re my stay in N.Y.

Wednesday

Cold - Clear - Frost - Sun!

School - Some times I think Sidders is an old fuddy - duddle an' at other's if find he has the knowledge. I guess he gets bored teaching these apprentices. Nice all day

Thursday

Rain - cold. School then rush to change & go to London for meeting The Friends of the Poor & Middlefolk's help. Princess Margaret is President Katherine let me go in her place.
Tea was served, Princess shorts than I am - very sweet - Human looking Wore dark brown silk suit with black dots, small, black feather cloak black bag, shoes - gloves.

Friday

Cold - rain -

Letter from Wilder - Grandmère - Collette has baby girl name Nicole Anne.

Left with Katherine to go to Swedish

Bazaar - Queen of Sweden there to open

Mobs of people - very colorful customs good food - usual articles but all from Sweden. Must go there next time I come over. Then to V & A.

fine exhibition of Murals - look up books by Problematic - must try to get one of them all A.P.

Did shopping for Sunday dinner.

This damp weather is getting me pain in legs & right arm.

Saturday -

Cold - cloudy - very weak sun.

Went to Katherine's & from there to

Deby Stuart College to see a Sister

Davidson who teaches Bookbinding

Has a fine work shop & small exhibition of books - writing - bindings & etc. Sister D. is 71 and still teaches - doesn't look it.

Same news as S.F. college for women

No rain - ~~couldn't~~ get warm!

Sunday - Rain! something new. will catch up on all littles to-day only 26 more days. Made poster account for dinner + galathea, spinach + pie meats.

School both morning + afternoon class had tests as there was a lot of going about + could not do much - Rained all day of course Dentist in evening - tooth in hope
'it lasts'.

Tuesday -

Rain - school

Wed

Rain - school L + check from Tito

Thursday - Thanks giving

Rain - What ever gave me the idea I could do book-binding?

Friday

To London - bought tickets to Milano, thru Paris + Lucerne.

Brought more books to KRD to be sent to S.F. wrote to Italy France etc. saying when I'll be there + took care of shop for Katherine while she was out to Parliament but not in session, saw Christmas decorations -

2871
Sat.

Stayed in - did shopping in Ealing Com.
washed clothes & cleaned rooms.
Made small box out of cones that KAD had given me.

Sunday

Stayed in worked on K.B. after dinner K. started to go thru her collection of pictures of findings + gave me duplicates. Tore myself away to keep appt. with Mrs Cousins, Hannah's cousin.
Very nice youngish person. They have bought an Edwardian House & are "doing" it. Have a 5 room part upstairs sold, a 2 room apartment for grand. mother and a large first floor that they are petitioning + painting themselves. Large garden + lots of trees in Hemstead.
Finished knitting sweats. Now to put it to-gether.

Monday - Rain

School - shall never be a scribe! But it was fun!
Put sweats to gether.

Tuesday. Clear - cloudy at times School - learned two new things, paving with leather and hollow back. A bit of sun! Carried my rain coat just the same.

Wednesday

School - Finished my 4 vols of arrangement of British Flowers.
Real pleased with it. Many thing I would not do a second time but have learned a lot.
Dinner with K & Mary at Chinese restaurant in Ealing Broadway.
Sewed buttons on sweaters. Big & warm. Started writing cards for Christmas. Wrote them all off before leaving London.

Thursday

School. Worked on spring hollow back & little punch book on flowers.
Brought 4 vols home & will mail to SF. Second day no rain! Wonders! Eager to get started back but dread packing.

Friday

Beautiful - cold wind - no rain!
To London Town - Met Mrs Oranfield friend of Hannah, we sat at Station & had a bit, talked for 1 1/2 hrs.
Back to Ealing & had my feet treated - feel some much better.
Trying to avoid a cold, fever Wister. Bought butcher's apron

Walked along Thames - from Charing X to Westminster very high tide.
Went to get my ticket & seat reservation
Sat.

Shopped for dinner to -morrow.
Rec. letter from Cartiers Magnon in fascia - they will allow -me to visit. Worked on writing & addressing Christmas cards - a very depressing business. Went to meet Katherine at Hammersmith & we went to see the Cat show.
Some wonderful cats but the same all over the world. None like Mimi. Cat ladies are also the same in London as in S.F.
Sunday - SUN.

Finished addressing cards & did lettering - its hopeless! But it was fun. Cooked Swedish dinner rolled cabbage leaves - stuffed.

Monday.
School - Roman lettering - at night went with Mary Smith to Puppet house where we picked up Katherine then walked up Oxford & down Regent St to see the Christmas decoration.
Mary never goes anywhere! Bright moon light but turning foggy & very cold. Will have frost in Morn.

Tuesday Rain!

School worked on my Italian book binding, hollow back, & tried to work on my little flower book but Mr Web insists on my using paper for the 1830 period & not leather. I'll have to work on it when he is not around.

Wednesday

School morning. To London to meet Mrs Braden, a sculptor (Stanfield) who will go with me to see the House of Commons. That is attend a session of Parliament. It was very interesting. Watching the questions put before the different members, Civil Lord of the Admiralty, Sec. of State for War, Postmaster General. Then went to Mrs Braun's studio where she lives with an older husband. Then to Ind. Film Theatre to see Pagnol's Cease. Wonderful Raimu & Fresnay were in it, an old film - almost got lost, cold - foggy - I'm freezing.

Thursday

Foggy - cold - rain

School in morn. in afternoon to Kathleen with a package of books to wrap & mail.

Saw Futuro's show at Mc Roberts & Tannard -
34 Curzon St. W 1

Tommet Mrs. The two of us with hold the fort on Friday while Katherine goes out of town to grade some art work. To bed early as I had not slept well last night - am afraid to catch cold. Very foggy all over Eng

Friday

To Bondon with an other package of books. Checked drawings for K.
To Pallack's re fr. packages letter from Bobbie, Clair in N.Y.
Very foggy & cold. N.R.D. grades Sat. sent for the schools & hundred arriving from all over, have to be unpacked, checked against list sorted as to subject before she grades them.

Sat.

took another load of books to wrap & send to S.F. mailed them well. Hope they reach their destination. Then went to see the Henry Moore exhibit at Whitechapel. Got at the lower East side of New York.
Rather depressing - the neighborhood - not Moore's show which was massive - great. Colder than it ever been - almost froze

2 letters from Pete most encouraging.

Sunday -

Packed & sorted things will have three more packages of books & a roll of paper.

Going to Mr Webb's to see his collection of children's books.
He is in the Tuesday book binding class.

Monday Cold - Rain

School - Last day of lettering.

Miss O. inscribed her books. Will never be a scribe, but certainly can appreciate it more. Mary drove me around Great West Road to see Christmas trees on lawns of Manufacture - Hoover, Gillette razors etc. Very colorful.

Tuesday Cold, Cold

B.B. finished K's books - new hinges, not good. Worked on little French Flower book - when Mr Webb was not looking.

Wednesday

Finished covering French F.B. to London with Mrs. Lead. Lewiston to Victoria Station with luggage, then to meet her sister-in-law who does restoration of drawings & prints.
Studied in Holland - most interesting she could see me only 1/2 hr as she is very busy. Then to N.R.R.

Tea at Rinaldo's with Mrs. L.
