Dear Mrs. Patri,
This letter is long overdue. With one thing and another happening around here, the Kurodani paper you ordered has just been sitting around gathering dust. I not only apologize for the delay but also I am sorry to say that the color is not what you asked for.

I am inclosing a sample of the delivered paper. If this color does not suit your purposes, I can arrange to have some more made. I hope, however, that this color acceptable and that I will be able to send the rest on to you.

I hope you are enjoying your spring.

Yours sincerely,

伊和太朗
