paper? They are the samples of what I need. They are what I selected and ordered from the paper maker in Kurondi (?) in April 1969. I would like the following:

- 200 sheets of Usu-mino
- 200 sheets of Usu-mino
- 200 sheets of dyed paper

The prices in 1969 were as follows, yen 18,000 for the dyed paper, 7,000 and 6,500 for the Usu-mino, for 100 sheets of each. The price may have gone up, but I do want the paper just the same. I am inclosing a check for $100.00 as partial payment and will remit the balance upon reception of your bill.

I would also like some more wheat starch, about 5 pounds. If this is an imposition on my part please do not hesitate to let me know. Perhaps you could give me the addresses and I could write directly to the persons. I will greatly appreciate your help in either case.

My war greeting to you and your family and to Mr. Kelman.

Sincerely,
