Kakemono mounting is done according to rules of proportion — depth of border above the painting is double that below it.
Yanagi has discovered that better proportion is 5 to 3 is better for viewing from seated in a chair