

MEMBERSHIP PROGRAM

Dieu Donne is a nonprofit handmade papermill whose mission is to advance the art of hand papermaking by 1) developing and refining handmade paper as a viable medium for two and three dimensional art 2) manufacturing archival papers for paper conservators and artist-designed papers for specific drawing, printmaking and publishing purposes 3) educating and involving the community through a variety of public programming and exhibitions and 4) raising awareness of the recycling and conservation aspects of the papermaking process.

Dieu Donne's purpose:

- ☐ to maintain a fully-equipped studio for use by professionals and students
- ☐ to collaborate with artists, publishers and printmakers to create art in, on or with handmade paper
- ☐ to conduct research in paper conservation and manufacture archival papers for museums and libraries
- ☐ to educate the community through classes, workshops, lectures, exhibitions, the internship program, the outreach program and the master papermaker program
- ☐ to advise artists, curators and collectors on artistic and exhibition matters
- ☐ to serve as a resource center by maintaining a slide registry, a library and archives
- ☐ to maintain a membership program and distribute a newsletter five times a year.
