

Handwritten practice of the cursive letter 'S' on a grid of 10 rows and 20 columns. Each character is formed by a single continuous stroke, starting with a small downward tick on the left side. The letters are arranged in a regular, repeating pattern across the entire page.