

BOOKBINDERS' PRESSES

THROUGHOUT the trade our bookbinders' presses are known as the standard machines for embossing, inking and smashing.

Special attention is called to our 11B press. The inking device of this machine is entirely new. The distribution of ink and size of roller permit a large case being inked with a single stroke, and will give a fine, uniform distribution over the entire surface.

