

Immediately north of the Commissary, was the Long Leaf Tennis Court. This court was built in 1918
And was very popular with the staff employees as well as their families.

The people in this photo standing in the middle of the Missouri Pacific tracks, are identified (L-R) as Joe and Roxie McCollum, Goldberg and Maxie. Maxie seems to have been quite a character. Again
This photo was taken from the road in front of the hotel looking east.
