

Finished putting the empty log train away for the weekend, and making up a Saturday train of lumber loads for the T&P and the CRI&P at Lecompte, the crew brought #106 back to the Long Leaf engine house for the night. A.E. actually took this photo on May 30, 1952, but the setting would have looked no different in March, 1953.