

- Victory Garden on the museum's lawn
Old Hosiery Mill Museum, Moreland, Georgia, Laura Glise
- Music in the Park featuring '40s era Big Band music
Okefenoke Heritage Center, Waycross, Georgia, Kathy Jacobson, (912)285-4260
- Compilation of oral histories of home front memories taped at each site for preservation by the University of West Virginia, and the systematic collection of nearly 1000 fifty-year old photographs new cataloged and deposited in the State Archives
- Tabloid featuring news articles and ads that appeared locally during the war years: rationing, local stories of desertion, the rural exodus to urban factories, local memories of POW Camps. The piece was used in public programs and classroom activities (funding by a second grant from the Utah Humanities Council)
Uintah County Library, Vernal, Utah, Evan Baker, (801)789-0091
- Paper Doll Making Clinic
- College level course developed entitled, "Victory on the Home Front: Oral Histories of WWII" gave students opportunity to conduct video histories of senior citizens; tapes were edited for local broadcast and archived at the local historical society
Olney Central College, Lawrenceville, Illinois
- Jitterbug Dance Classes
- Fashion show featuring '40s clothing styles
- Adding local artifacts to the SITES exhibition: family photographs, letters, ration books, advertisements, journals, appliances, news clippings, blackout curtains, buttons, toys, clothing, dance cards, comics, V-mail and other period memorabilia
- Companion traveling exhibitions supplement Produce for Victory, such as "Fighters on the Farm Front" Oregon's Emergency Farm Labor Service 1943-1947"
Oregon State University Archives
- WWII veterans reunions and Flyovers
100th Meridian Museum, Cozad NE, Marilyn Peterson, (308)784-3794