

REGIONAL ARCHIVES AND AREAS SERVED

A variety of public programs supplement regional archives research and archival services. The regional archives provide tours of their facilities; present workshops on archival research, genealogy, or related subjects; host exhibits; and plan other special programs to commemorate historical events. These programs may be sponsored jointly with colleges or universities, historical societies, genealogical groups, other federal agencies, or museums. Some ongoing activities at individual regional archives are listed below. Each facility is open Monday through Friday; and most offer extended hours; please call for research hours or other information.
