BOAT HOUSE
FOOT OF VAN NESS AVENUE
SAN FRANCISCO

August 7, 1922.

To the Officers and Members of the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club.

WHOW! NOW FOR A NIGHT OF FUN

The coming "Novelty Dance" to be held on Saturday Evening August 26th should prove a "thriller" in the way of a good time. The plan of the Committee is to have the spirit of New Year's Eve prevail throughout the evening by passing out serpentine, balloons and other novelties of frolic among the crowd. George Hauerkin's Jazz artists promise to dish some appetizing music. No costumes needed just be prepared for plenty of surprises and fun.

ANOTHER ANNUAL EVENT

The Annual Dolphin Golden Gate Swim will be held on Sunday morning Sept. 17, the exact time of the race will be set by the Athletic Committee at a later date. The entry list posted at the boathouse shows a total of seventeen paddlers signed up and rare'n to go. The Gate Swim isn't as hard as its cracked up to be so why not follow the gang and get in the swim. The usual trophies for the winners and medals for all those who finish are well worth the few moments of shivering.

INSIDE DOPE

Harold Treacy, the bloke with the trick hat, was pinched for speeding in his Ford. Bet'cha your kidding us, Harry.

Did you notice how stuck up Allan Kilkeary is since he has been sporting around under his brothers imported straw hat from Switzerland.

Alex McCausland intends opening a school in the "Art of wooing the Woman" for the bashful ones like Steve Vicini and Dr. McKevitt.

We have it from unknown sources that Tony Caito was seen walking down Powell Street with a white girl.

Bob Blinn took a girl out in a canoe and she refused to kiss him so he paddled her back.

Since Dr. Leon Cuenin has taken up golf he won't eat cake. Probably trying to avoid a slice. Ha! Ha! Joke.

Reynolds Barbeiri says that pulling a fishing line is so much easier than pulling an oar.

Herman Bauer who recently returned from Los Angeles, California, informs us that down there they don't bury the dead, they let them walk around the town.

Al Cuenin is going to use one of Gus Bertrands pictures as an add for his new hair restorer.

Phil Ryan is getting to be quite an athlete since hes been going around with Bud Sterling. Yep, mostly mexican.

When Carl Luderman graduates from college Fred Kuhls is going to present him with a nice bouquet of onions from his flower shop.

Chester Dechent is trying to get in touch with Al Cuenin to find out if his new hair restorer would help his sidechops.

Look out, fellows here comes George McMillan he wants to play.

The next regular meeting of Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club will be held in the courtroom of Judge Graham, City Hall, on Wednesday Evening, August 9, at 8:30 p.m.

Sincerely yours,

LAWTON HUGHES
