12-Year-Old Girl Swims The Golden Gate

Twelve-year-old Lorelei Morino, a seventh grade student from Daly City, cut school yesterday to join her father in a swim across the Golden Gate.

Doing a crawl all the way, she swam the seven-tenths of a mile from Ft. Point to Lime Rock on the Marin county shore in 40 minutes, 54 seconds.

Why did she do it?

"I'm not sure," said Lorelei. "It was my mother's idea."

Lorelei attends Ben Franklin Intermediate School. Her father, Jim, 47, is a plumber who works for the San Francisco Municipal Railway. It was his 22nd Golden Gate swim.

The youngest swimmer to cross the Golden Gate was Dick Poe, of San Carlos, who was 9 when he did it in 38 minutes on Oct. 16, 1955.

The water was 55 degrees yesterday.

SAN FRANCISCO CHRONICLE, SUNDAY, SEPT. 18, 1949

It's Not the English Channel, but It's Just as Cold

BABY, IT'S COLD IN THERE—Dolphin Club Swimmers train faithfully in the bay waters in preparation for the club's annual race across the Golden Gate. Here, a group of ten of the 30 listed starters are shown dashing into the bay waters for a practice swim. Just about every swim stroke known will be employed by the Dolphin mermen in this race. Like those who battled to conquer the English Channel the Dolphins vary in speed and objective. For most part, as was the case with the English Channel swimmers just to make the crossing under their own power will be satisfactory.

Beside The Sea

30 Mermen Brave Gate Waters Today

By GEORGE F. LINEER

Men who go down to the sea in boats at least have something between them and the wild waves. This morning about 10 o'clock about 30 hardy watermen are scheduled to dive into the waters of the Golden Gate just west of Fort Point and head for Lime Point on the Marin shore.

Clad only in the scantiest garb, which some will augment with smears of goeey grease in the vain hope that it will repel cold, the men and boys of many shapes and ages will match their skill and stamina with the tide rips and cold water. Most will succeed and some will fail if the pattern of former years is followed.

Anita Day Hubbard, local newspaper columnist, will act as pilot for Joseph Paoli. Mrs. Hubbard, long an aquatic enthusiast, pulls just about the strongest feminine oar on San Francisco Bay.

Spectators get very little chance to view the English Channel swims, some of which are started in the darkness of night. The race across the Golden Gate can be followed from the Golden Gate Bridge, which serves as a definite guide for the struggling swimmers. A spectator's boat is scheduled to leave the foot of Van Ness avenue at 8:30 a. m.

Ray Carmassi, winner of the last two Dolphin Club Gate Swims, is favored to repeat. Carmassi should win providing he doesn't run afoul of some fractious tide rip that his opponents may miss. That has happened before and could happen again.

George Bond and Walter Pomeroy, who made the first swim across the Golden Gate in 1911 were the real "Fred Fearnots" of that day. When this pair of amateurs tackled the gate they were considered foolhardy as rumors of sharks, swirling riptides and many other unseen dangers had been handed down from one generation to another. The Dolphins inaugurated their swim across the gate in 1917.

Following the swim there will be a reception and dance at the Dolphin Clubhouse, foot of Hyde street.

As always, Jimmy Cronin, patriarch of the club, will fire the starting gun.

Don Baggiani, Al Liva and Lawton Hughes will be in charge of the event.

Many of the contestants are veterans of the course.

S.F. Teams Reach Half-Way Point In Basketball Race

The CYO's casaba tournament hit the half-way mark in most local leagues this week with two upsets recorded which were totally unexpected. St. Francis' 100-pound artists defeated St. Vincent de Paul's last Saturday 30-27 and once again demonstrated that even in basketball the day of miracles has not passed. St. Vincent's had shown a really sound ball club in their previous games, youngsters who had had three years of CYO experience and had just acquired the knack of the hardwood sport. But Father Clyde Tillman's lads reckoned not with the fickle fancies of those famous twin sisters, Lady Luck and Dame Fortune, for they had their arms firmly entwined around young Jim Morino of St. Francis who propelled the sphere at the basket on every possible occasion and in the process made some almost freakish shots. Jim rang up 14 points and broke the hearts of his opponents. Billy Talbot, Bob Righetti and the other St. Vincent's players could not match that exhibition, but they are calm in the knowledge that the one defeat does not eliminate them from eventually gaining the title.

Carmassi Wins 4th Gate Swim

Marine-to-Be
Is Fastest by Seven Minutes

By GEORGE F. LINEER

Ray Carmassi, who is scheduled to join the U. S. Marines Wednesday, won his fourth straight Golden Gate swim over 34 starters yesterday morning in the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club's 33d annual event.

It was Carmassi from start to finish, increasing his advantage steadily until he touched the white painted rock of Lime Point. Carmassi led his nearest opponent, Jim Morino by almost seven minutes. Don Mozzetti hit the finish point 32 seconds later.

From the tide standpoint it was not the best day in the world as Carmassi's time of over 30 minutes would indicate. Mark Graham, of the S. F. Recreation Department, acted as Ray's pilot and steered his course straight and true. Captain George Kaufman, of the U. S. Army L. T. 367, gave the swimmers a perfect alignment with Fort Point for the start, and then displayed infinite patience and judgment in trying to please the officials and cameramen keeping his ship where good judgment dictated it should be.

Pete Salvato and "Shoes" Schunemann staged a stroke to stroke battle in the last 100 yards of the race as did Fred Herms and Antone Gelardi. Less than a second separated these duos at the end of their hour-long battle across the gate.

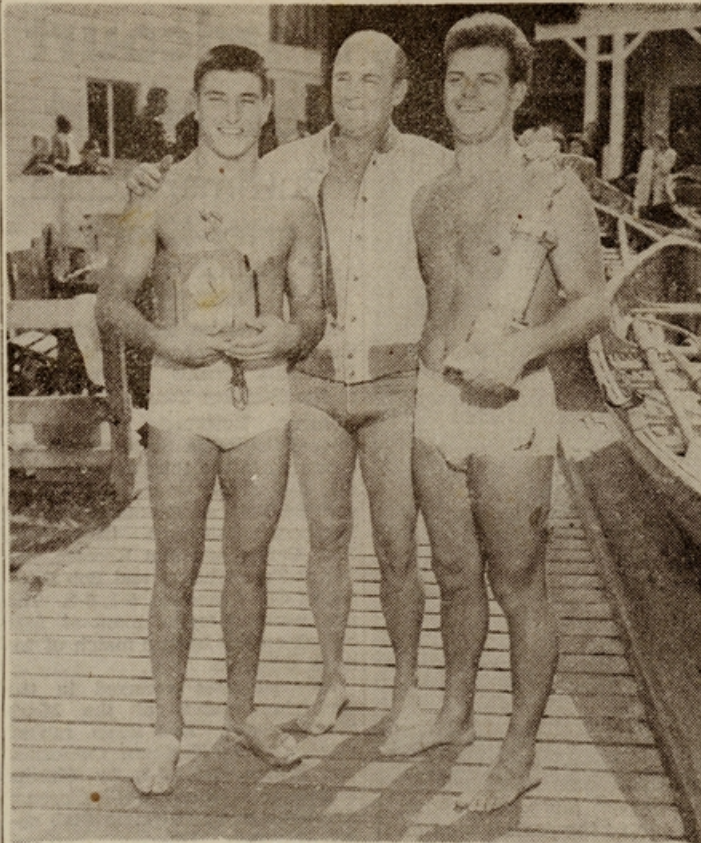

Don Baggiani, Leonard Gelardi, Bill Brennan and Walt Taylor in some manner got the idea that the finish was on Alcatraz Island and before they could be straightened out by the patrol boats they had made so much progress in that direction that they had to approach the finish from the East side of Lime Point and buck the incoming tide at the same time.

John McElroy, son of former Sea Scout Master Jim McElroy, made the gate crossing for the first time and showed good style and proper conditioning. John was another of quite a few who strayed from the shortest course.

Paul Silvestor, who finished in 18th place, made his 24th swim across the Golden Gate. Big Bill Mahood, Oakland policeman cheered by his 9-year-old son Bill Jr, made the crossing for the 23d time. Ted Monell, local attorney, who was forced out of gate competition for several years completed his 16th, as did Joe Bruno. Clifford Quist and Don Baggiani made it their 15th.

Complete results follow:

BIG JIM

A tradition was bravely kept alive yesterday morning as 23 Dolphin Club members and kin took part in the 73rd annual mid-winter dip into the Pacific Ocean. The water, to put it mildly, was COLD!

Dolphins Carry on Tradition

By George Lineer

Twenty-three members of the Dolphin Club bulled their necks and dashed into the Pacific Ocean surf yesterday to keep a tradition alive.

It was the 73rd annual Dolphin Dip, and the way the chilly water had some of them hopping around a new dance craze by that name might have been born.

At a post-dip brunch the Dolphins elected Lawton Hughes as president for 1966. Other newly elected officers are: Robert Denno, vice president; John Stephenson, financial secretary; Walt Schneedeli, recording secretary; Frank Minnucci, treasurer; and Bill Walden, captain.

The list of those who took the dip (all hereby nominated for Duty Above and Beyond):

SWIM, SWAM, SWUM—Joyce Macrae climbs into the pilot boat at the end of her Golden Gate swim yesterday, as Lawton Hughes (center), her pilot, and Ray Morino, of the Olympic Club, man the oars. She failed to break a twenty-six year record with her time of thirty-four minutes fourteen seconds, and will make another attempt within three weeks.

FINALE Dolphin Oarsmen Victors

Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club oarsmen won the final Bay Area regatta of the season yesterday, defeating three other clubs in races held in conjunction with Columbus and Harbor Day festivities.

Scoring in the races held at Aquatic Park was: Dolphins 20, Marin Rowing Club 16, San Francisco Rowing Club 7 and South End Rowing Club 3.

Bob Nielsen of the Dolphins beat former Pacific Coast lightweight rowing champion Bob Cummings, Marin, in the lightweight singles event. Nielsen's time over the unmeasured course was 2:19 minutes.

Two senior events were postponed because time available for the regatta ran out.

Other results:

Novice Singles—Won by Rexford, Marin, 2:32. Novice Fours—Won by Marin (Miller, Romer, Smith, Meyer, Chamberlain), 2:21. Junior Singles—Won by Jim Morino, Dolphins, 2:29. Dolphins' Gate Race On Sunday

35 Contestants Will Swim From S. F. to Marin

By GEORGE F. LINEER

The chilly waters of the Golden Gate will be the scene of the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club's 33rd Annual Race from San Francisco to the Marin shore Sunday at 10 a. m.

A total of 35 contestants have signed. These will range in age from 16 to 60, and will come in many sizes and shapes, but all will be in good physical condition as they have been training for the past three months.

Ray Carmassi, who won the Dolphin Club's Gate Swim last year, is an odds-on favorite to repeat. Carmassi expects to enlist in the Marines the following week.

Many will be starting in their first race, but old timers like Bill Mahood, Oakland policeman, Ted Monell, attorney, and Joe Bruno, produce merchant, are veterans at this game and will be shooting for all time crossing records.

Two of the contestants, Joe Paoli, of Mayes' Oyster House, and Joe Mares, of the Paris Louvre Restaurant, have a private duel on. Inasmuch as they are strictly amateurs, we can't mention side bets.

Jimmy Cronin, the octogenarian, and perennial treasurer of the Dolphin Club, will act as starter. The race is scheduled to start off Fort Point, and finish will be at the white painted Lime Rock on the Marin shore.

Spectator boats are slated to leave the foot of Hyde street promptly at 9 a. m. The public is invited.

Contestants are:

Golden Gate Swim Sunday

The waters of the Aquatic Park Cove are being churned this week by aspiring entrants in the 33rd annual swim of the Dolphin Club across the Golden Gate, to take place Sunday morning.

The swimmers will hit the water Sunday, 10:00 a. m., from the Fort Point side of the Gate, and swim to Lime Point. Veteran Jimmie Cronin, as usual, will fire the starting gun.

While Ray Carmassi, winner of last year's event, is still touted as winner, the form of some of the 35 signed up members who will compete, seems likely to threaten his title.

Carmassi Cops Gate Swim

Ray Carmassi won the 33rd annual Golden Gate swim of the Dolphin Club yesterday, and 19-year-old Jimmy Moreno finished second. Carmassi led 32 other swimmers across in 30 minutes, 16 seconds, eight minutes ahead of Moreno.

For Carmassi, who is scheduled to join the U. S. Marine Corps Wednesday, it was his fourth straight win. He led from start to finish. Don Mozzetti finished third, 32 seconds behind Moreno.

Order of finish:

Ray Carmassi	30:16	Mel Scontrino	53:04
Jim Morino	38:15	Paul Sylvester	53:07
Don Mozzetti	38:37	W. Schneebell	54:38

Carmassi Grabs Swim

Ray Carmassi justified predictions yesterday by winning the thirty-third annual Golden Gate swim of the Dolphin Club, but 19 year old Jimmy Moreno provided an upset by finishing second. Times were slow. Carmassi leading thirty other swimmers across in 30 minutes, 16 seconds, eight minutes ahead of the runnerup. Carmassi's time last year was 25:58.

Moreno touched Lime Rock in 38:15; Donald Mozzett came in third at 38:47, and Lenny Gelardi, counted upon to finish second again as he had last year, was fourth at 39:42.

The swimmers dove off the LT 367, Army tug, at 10:20, from a point just inside the Golden Gate Bridge off Fort Point. Walt Taylor, the last one in, made it in 75:15.

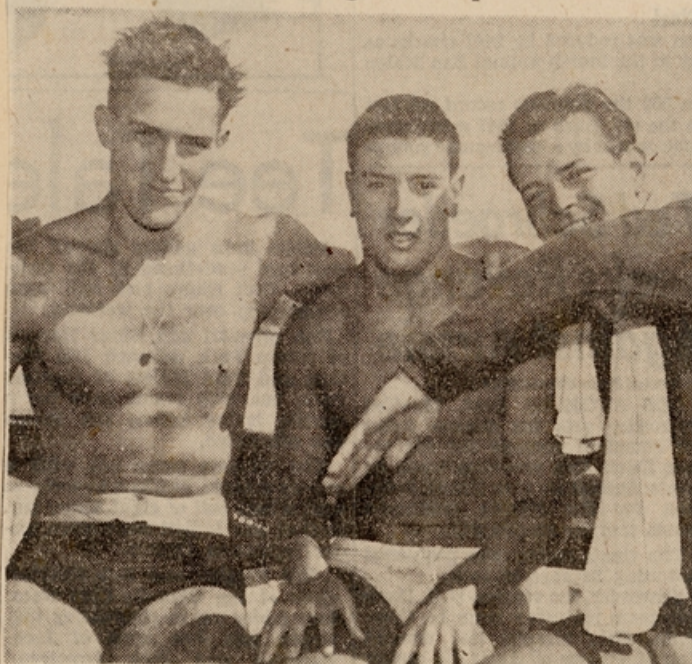

Paul Sylvester, who completed a quarter century of crossings with his twenty-fifth swim, made eighteenth.

Order of finish:

Ray Carmassi, 30.16; Jim Morone, 38.5; Donald Mozzetti, 38.47; Leonard Gelardi, 39.42; Joe Bruno, 39.50; Jim Healy, 41.07; Ray Sangalli, 41.59; Cliff Quist, 41.59; Bill Schroeder, 43.45; Wayne Alexander, 44.32; Martin Vermueller, 47.10; Tom Gullfooy, 47.18; Pete Salvato, 47.30; Shoes Schunemann, 49.32; Ted Monell, 50.50; Joe Mares, 51.21; Mel Scontrino, 53.04; Paul Sylvester, 53.07; Walt Schmechel, 54.38; Fred Herms, 58.12; Antone Gelardi, 58.13; Frank Adams, 58.37; Roland Demaris, 61.24; Remo Tocchini, 62.13; John McElroy, 62.33; Bill Mahood, 63.02; Ray Dufour, 63.14; Don Baggini, 66.13; Leonard J. Hoover Jr. Scull Victor

A true chip off the old block stole the show on sun-dappled Lake Merced yesterday in the Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen's annual championship regatta.

The top star was Walter Hoover Jr. 15, whose father was United States amateur single sculls champion in 1921, 1925 and 1926 and Henley (England) single sculls titlist in 1922.

Young Hoover, coached and trained by his father on Nevada's Lake Meade, displayed a tremendous potential as he swept to victory in three events, the senior singles and two quarter mile dashes.

The senior Hoover was proudest of all the thousands of people who lined the lake shore to witness the regatta.

San Diego Rowing Club retained the team championship with 17 points. Nevada, paced by Hoover, tallied 10½ to gain second place. Dolphin Club of San Francisco scored 10, South End of San Francisco 5, Marin of Sausalito 2 and San Francisco Rowing Club 1.

The Dolphins edged San Diego by one quarter length in the featured senior fours race. They were even at the three quarter mark, with each boat clicking off a 36 beat. Then Coxswain Ray Morino upped the Dolphin count to almost 40 and his hands iced ahead to win. Results. (All races one mile except two dashes):

Junior Singles—Miller, Nevada; Heilburn, San Diego; Hall, Marin; Adevedo, South End. Time—7:18.

Junior Fours—San Diego, South End. Time—6:42.

Lightweight Singles (145 pounds)—Smith, Nevada; Johnson, San Diego; Then, S. F.; Adevedo, South End; DeVito, Dolphin. Time—7:01.

Lightweight Fours—Dolphin, San Diego, South End. Time—6:51.

Senior Singles—Hoover, Nevada; Miller, Nevada; O'Neill, San Diego; Hall, Marin. Time—6:59.

Senior Fours—Dolphin, San Diego, South End. Time—6:28.3.

Lightweight Quarter Mile Dash—Hoover, Nevada; Stitt, Nevada; O'Neill, San Diego; Then, S. F.; Adevedo, South End. Time—1:31½.

Unlimited Quarter Mile Dash—Hoover, Nevada; Stitt, Nevada; Miller, Nevada; O'Neill, San Diego. Time—1:33½.

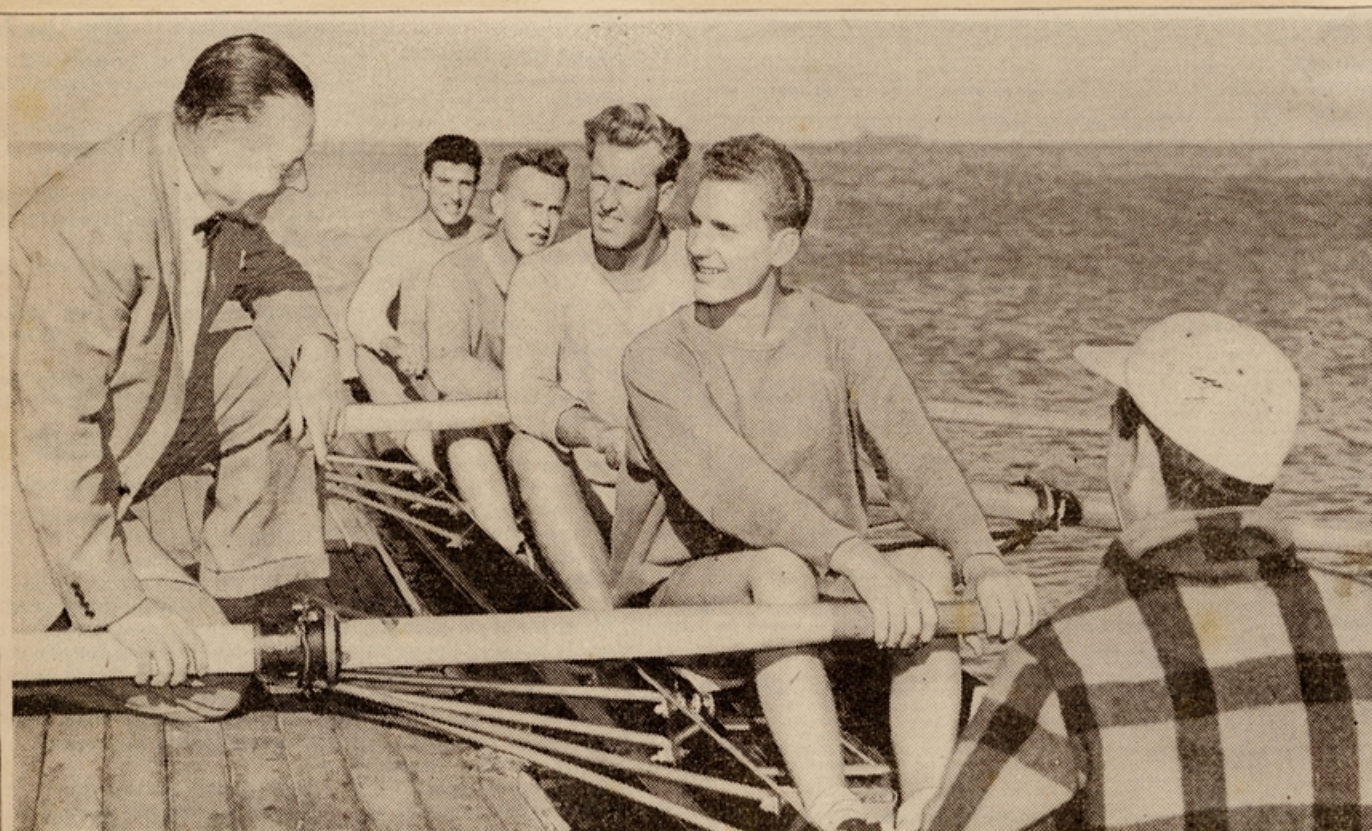

POURING ON THE POWER—Dolphin Club of San Francisco's straining senior fours crew (foreground), closing with a rush, sweeps to victory in the Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen's championship regatta on Lake

Merced yesterday. As they hit the finish the Dolphins are one quarter length ahead of the San Diego Rowing Club four. The two boats were even at the three quarter mark in the featured one mile race. Then Coxswain Ray Morino raised the Dolphin stroke to 40, and the San Franciscans edged ahead in the final quarter mile. San Diego rowers won the regatta, however.

PA Oarsmen to Race For Title on Merced

Oarsmen of the San Diego Rowing Club will be back to defend their title today when the Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen holds its annual championship regatta at Lake Merced. First of the nine scheduled events starts at 1 p. m.

Teams entering sculls in the regatta are Marin Rowing Club, Dolphin Club, San Francisco Rowing Club, South End Rowing Club, Nevada Boat Club, and San Diego Rowing Club.

The newly formed Marin Rowing Club of Sausalito will be making its first bid in the PAAO championships. Syd Hall will represent the club in the junior and senior singles. Nevada will send the capable Walter M. Hoover Jr., son of the former Diamond Sculls winner.

Lawton Hughes, former coast champion and coach of the Dolphin Clubbers will send representatives into the lightweight fours and senior fours. South End Rowing Club will enter Tim McGowan in the junior and Jack Azevido in the lightweight races.

The program includes junior singles and fours, lightweight singles and fours, senior singles and fours. In addition, there will be quarter mile dashes for lightweight singles and open fours and singles. All races start at the north end of the lake.

Bay Barges Race Today

Coxswain Herb Derham leads his Dolphin Club crew against Jack Schratz's South End Rowing Club barge in a special event of the rowing regatta at Aquatic Park today beginning at 12 noon.

Both boats are age-dated. The Dolphin barge, 63 years old, was built for the club in 1887. The South End entry was created in 1915.

The boats will start from the cove, race to buoys anchored a half mile beyond Municipal Pier, and back to the cove again.

Novice four man barge, senior four oared barge, novice single skiff racing and single skiff lightweight make up the balance of competition between the Dolphin and South End Rowing Club.

In addition, there will be a special single skiff race of former Bay area champions. They include Lawton Hughes, Dolphin Club; Phil Hunter, South End; Bob Cummings, Marin Rowing Club; Col. Frank Adams, Marin Rowing Club.

Ray Carmassi Wins Swim Across the Golden Gate

By GEORGE F. LINEER

Corporal Ray Carmassi of the U. S. Marines, won the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club's 34th annual Golden Gate swim yesterday afternoon for the fifth straight time from a field of 28 starters and 26 finishers. Eric Borgenson was second, the fifth year in a row that Eric trailed the winner in this swim classic. Harry Fields, a speedster of note, was third and Joe Weiss, who though not rated as swift, got an exceptionally good course and came in fourth. The winner's time of 37:45 is slow for the course.

Those who sweltered in the heat yesterday may find it difficult to understand that weather conditions were not good in the gate, but such was the case. A 20-mile westerly wind created a choppy course, and ground swells made the going anything but easy for both swimmers and oarsmen. Carmassi, the winner, stated after the race it was his toughest gate trial though he was in the best condition of his career.

Paul Silvester, who finished 10th, might have done considerably better had he not insisted at the start that his final objective was the Farallon islands. Paul headed due west immediately and though his pilot tried to head him off he insisted on his course. When he discovered which way was north he did much better.

Three youngsters with faith in their fathers sweated out the race until the end. The sons were Bill Mahood Jr., Remo Tocchini and Loring Tocchini. For more than an hour there was no report on the dads. Young Bill Mahood said his pop had always made it and without a single day of training would finish.

Loring Tocchini stoutly said that he knew his dad would make it as he never quit. The faith of the youngsters was well founded as Remo Tocchini Sr. finished in 19th place after swimming 76 minutes. Bill Mahood crossed an imaginary line between his off course position and Lime Point at the end of two hours of continuous swimming.

Al Liva, former president of the Dolphin Club, returned to the competitive field in this gate swim and though he made the crossing under his own power he finished his chore with leg cramps that didn't help his speed at all in the last quarter mile.

Frank Adams and Ted More II, according to officials, finished a second apart after swimming for more than an hour. In the last 100 yards this pair swam as though just starting. From the boat it looked like a dead heat but the officials on the balcony at Lime Point decided that Adams touched first.

Frank Mennucci, who was carried by the tides down to Tennessee Cove about a quarter of a mile east of Lime Point, insisted on swimming back to the point instead of touching the shore at the easiest spot. Mennucci wanted to be sure that everything was strictly according to the rules.

Dolphins, South Enders Split Honors

By GEORGE F. LINEER

Dolphin and South End Club watermen divided honors yesterday afternoon in an aquatic meet which featured a six-oared-barge rowing race and a six-man-relay swim race. The Dolphins proved to be the better oarsmen but the South Enders evened the honors for the day by outswimming the Dolphins.

The barge race was from a starting point opposite the St. Francis Yacht Club to Aquatic Park, a distance of about a mile and a quarter. At the half-way mark the Dolphins were a quarter boat length ahead. At this point the South Enders raised their stroke and gained a half boat advantage on the Dolphins.

Stroke Oar Dino Restelli and Coxswain Carl Luders, with about a quarter mile left to go, called for a big twelve and the Dolphins pulled in front and then kept going away until they reached the finish three and a half lengths in front.

The winning crew was composed of Lawton Hughes, Tom Tronum, Joe Bruno, Harvey Murray, Walter Schneebeli, Restelli and Luders.

In the swim race the South End swimmers came from behind when Reno Rapagnani, a San Francisco policeman, overcame a handicap of more than 25 feet to capture the paddling trial for his club.

The winning South End relay team was composed of Herman Dudak, Oscar Ortiz, Don Wardo, John Stonum, Garret Esties and Rapagnani.

Dolphins To Swim On Sunday 35 Will Try Gate Test

By GEORGE F. LINEER

The channel swimming urge hits aquatic devotees at this time of the year and apparently age and occupation in life have no bearing on who is hit. This we note from the list of 35 hardy watermen signed to start in the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club's annual swim Sunday across the Golden Gate.

A newcomer to Gate swimming, Bill McIvor of Stanford, is generally regarded as the favorite in this affair which had been won the last five times by Ray Carmassi, who recently swam the Catalina channel. Carmassi, still suffering from a sore shoulder, will not start.

The swimmers will dive off the starting boat near Fort Point at 10:30 a. m. and will finish at Lime Point. Spectators' boats are slated to leave the dock near the boat house at 9:30 a. m. The public is invited. The entry list: Jim Morino, Jim Barron, Leonard Gelardi Jr., Martin Vermeulen, Joe Bruno, Dominic Julio, Ray Crivello, Ted Monell, Bill Quayle, C. E. Quist, Bill Mahood, Joe Mares, Reno Rapagnani, Roy Hooper, Tim Richardson, Bert Capps, L. J. Gelardi Sr., D. R. Mozzetti, Hector Valencia, Wally Irwin, Walt Schneebeli, Harry Fields, Don Alber, George Escobar, Elmer Hubacher, J. F. Napoli, Bill McIvor, Bob Sangalli, Dick Sangalli, Paul Silvestor, Frank Adams, Jim Healy, Tom Tronum, Eric Borgenson.

The San Diegans held a length and a half lead at the half-mile mark of the senior event, but the San Franciscans closed fast over the last five-eighths of a mile to win. All races were 1½ miles with the exception of the 145-pounders' quarter-mile sprint.

HAPPY VICTOR—Single sculls winner Jim Morino has a right to smile after he paced the Dolphin Club to victory over South End in yesterday's Columbus Day races.

Dolphin's Morino Paces Victory Over South End

By GEORGE F. LINEER

The rowing races which were part of the Columbus Day program at Aquatic Park yesterday afternoon were won in handy manner by the oarsmen from the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club. Jim Morino started the day for the Dolphin Clubbers by defeating Dick Sisich of the South End Club in a singles affair. Morino was clocked in :52.3.

Though Morino was the club champion and as such he represented the Dolphins in the inter-club match race he was far from through for the day when he won this trial. Bob Nielsen, a fellow Dolphin, challenged Morino for the club title over the same course. Once again Morino proved best by defeating his fellow clubman in 0:50.2.

The six oared barge race caused a stir among oarsmen. Last year in this trial from Yacht Harbor to Aquatic Park, a distance of a mile, the losing South End crew blamed their defeat on the weight of the boats. The South Enders contended that the Dolphin boat was considerably lighter, and newer, and offered the victors an advantage. This the Dolphins denied.

In the race won by the Dolphins yesterday, the clubs switched boats, the South Enders taking the supposedly lighter Dolphin boat and the Dolphins manning the South End barge. It made little difference as the Dolphins won pulling away in 7:20.0. Jubilant Dolphins offered to lend their rivals oarsmen next year.

It is notable that the president of each rowing club took part in the barge trial, Roland Demarias for the Dolphins and Jack Cronin for the South Enders. The winning crew was made up of Tom Tronum, Lawton Hughes, Frank Mennucci, Joe Weiss, Joe Bruno and Dino Landucci. Demarias was coxswain.

Dolphins' Boat iwamped in Bay

Ten Dolphin Club swimmers were unexpectedly dunked in the chilly waters of the Bay at 5:45 p. m. yesterday.

The Dolphins were returning from Angel Island—where they had demonstrated their prowess in a half-mile offshore swimming stunt—when a wave hit and inundated their boat.

The swimmers were forced overboard along with their 85-year-old club treasurer, James Cronin of 763 Cole street.

For 20 minutes, the swimmers, clinging to their boat, dangled in the water about 500 yards off Angel Island.

Cronin was kept afloat by the vessel's single life preserver. A fishing boat, the "Peggy Anne" of Berkeley, rescued the Dolphin Club members and towed their craft to Aquatic Park.

Croning was taken to Park Emergency Hospital and treated for shock.

The other Dolphins needed only dry clothing.

The ten swimmers were Roland Demarals, Martin Hughes, Emelio Masucco, Tom Troneum, Abe Levinsky, Jim Marino, Bob Neilsen, Harvey Murray, Jim Barron and Joe Burno.

Stack Grabs Dolphin Swim

Walter Stack, a 57-year-old hod carrier, cross-country runner and a cyclist, won the Dolphin Club Handicap Cove Swim at Aquatic Park yesterday in the elapsed time of 26:19.

Stack was closely trailed by Dan Murphy and Joe Carroll, who finished second and third respectively.

Other finishers:

4—Ted Monell, 5—Ed DeCossio Jr., 6—Frank Drum, 7—Paul Adrian, 8—Voldi Walter, 9—Frank Blackburn, 10—Rudy DeMay, 11—James Vanya, 12—Frank Blair, 13—Bill O'Brien, 14—Pablo Palick, 15—Jim Morino, 16—Vern Loudon, 17—Gordon Cook, 18—Andy Franco, 19—Fred Howard, 20—Bob Jimenez, 21—Dan Osborne, 22—John Parent, 23—Lew Cook, 24—Bob Rose, 25—Joe Flahaven, 26—Joe Bruno, 27—Tom Robb, 28—Bob Webb, 29—Bob Pinetti.

LAKE MERCED

San Diego Oarsmen Triumph

San Diego Rowing Club successfully defended its title in the Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen regatta yesterday at Lake Merced.

The Bordertown sweeps and scullers won five of the six official events against the host Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club. South End Rowing Club was the victim in one division—lightweight fours.

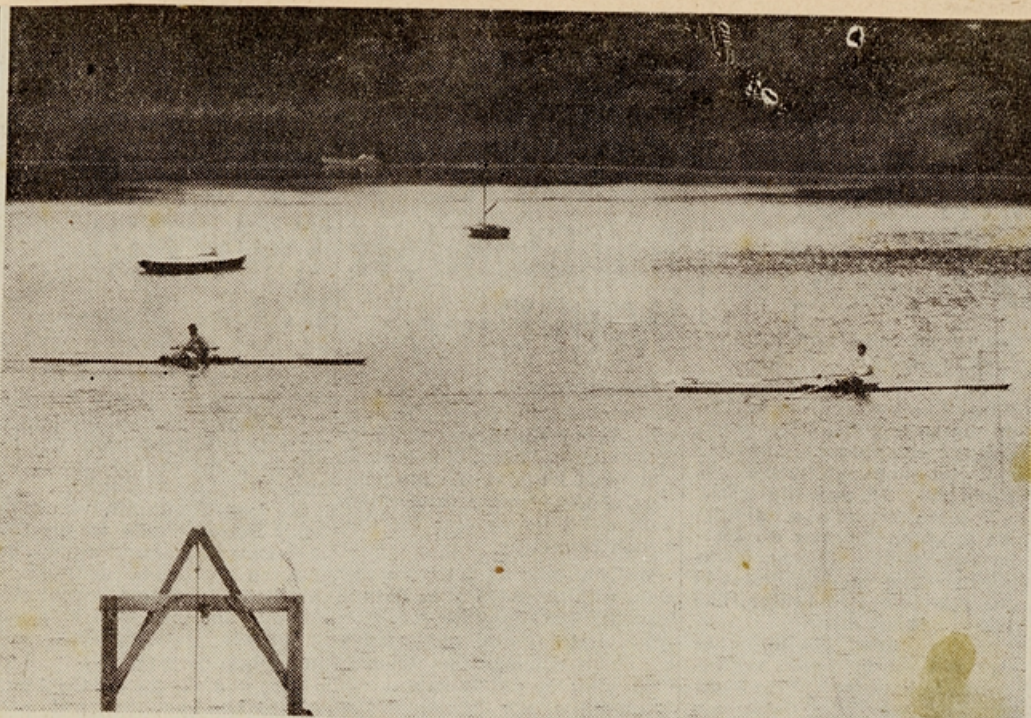

However, the Dolphins salvaged considerable glory by scoring a narrow victory in senior fours, feature event of the regatta. In so doing, the San Franciscans ran their record to six victories in the past seven races against San Diego senior fours.

Allen Smith of San Diego defeated the Dolphins' Bob Neilsen by a full length of open water for the senior single sculls title. Winning time was 9:27 for the mile and one-eighth course used in all races.

The senior fours race appeared to be a runaway for San Diego soon after the start when the crew stroked by Rene Blanc went out a length and a half. But at one-half mile Dolphin pace-setter Dino Landucci brought his boat even and the opposing crews fought it out on even terms to the wire.

At that the margin of victory was a mere three feet. Winning time was 7:39.

San Diego's other victories were in junior singles, won by Rene Blanc; lightweight singles, won by Kearny Johnston, and the quarter-mile singles dash, won by Allen Smith.

BASS FISHING OFF

To return to our own frontyard, we find that weekend bass fishing was not all that it should be. The stripers were biting few and far between, thanks to rough water, the tide and what have you.

Beach fishing was the best. Jerry Vest passes on word that Len Hertz, Frank Mortonana, Ray Casentini and George Nacetti caught 10 bass, weighing from 12 to 22 pounds, and Bonnie Prachnow two, 12 and 14 pounds, all at Mission Rock.

Tony Caruso reports that John Smith landed a 20-pounder at Muny Pier and Jimmy Morino a 16-pounder at Mission Rock. Frank Lamb's biggest entry was a 15-pounder Bob Searle caught at Mission Rock.

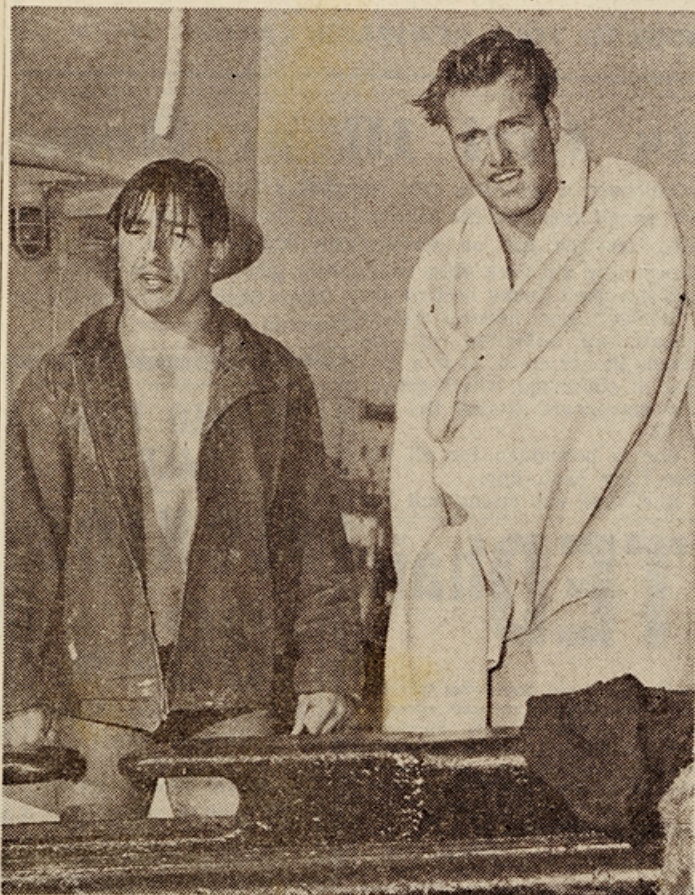

Other weekend catches included limits from seven to 12 pounds taken by Alfredo Ratto, Steve Perata and George Lombard at Black Buoy; 15 stripers, largest 5½ pounds, taken by Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Raggio, A. Raggio and A. Cardoza, at Napa; a seven-pounder landed by Burt Brachmann at San Pablo, and a limit to eight pounds caught by E. Cers at Eckley.

Carmassi Winner in Gate Swim

Marine Corporal Ray Carmassi overcame a brisk wind, choppy seas and a tough course to capture his sixth Golden Gate swim yesterday.

Carmassi negotiated the thirty-fourth annual Dolphin Club test in 37 minutes 45 seconds. Eric Borgeson finished second in 46:45 and Harry Fields third, 49:05.

Twenty-six swimmers finished the race from the south end of the Gate at the bridge to Lime Point on the Marin County shore. Frank Mennucci, who learned to swim only a year ago, received the sportsmanship trophy for negotiating the course in 1:11.

Another novice, Wally Irwin, was timed in 1:05.

Among the old timers, Paul Silvester competed for the twenty-sixth time and Bill Mahood for the twenty-fifth.

Finishing what old timers claimed was one of the roughest swims in the long history of the event, were:

Joe Weiss 4th, and Martin Vernuelsen, Ray Sangalli, Jim Morino, Joe Bruno, Wayne Alexander, Paul Silvester, Cliff Quist, Jim Healy, Gus Gelardi, Lennie P. Gelardi, Frank Inferera, Frank Adams, Ted Monell, Walter Schneebeli, Remo Tocchini, Al Liva, Antone Gelardi, Roland Demaris, Wally Irwin, Frank Mennucci, Leonard Gelardi and Bill Mahood, in that order.

Dolphin Club Holds Bay Swim Today

By GEORGE F. LINEER

Ray Carmassi, a corporal in the U. S. Marines, will defend his title today in the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club's annual race across the Golden Gate. Carmassi will be seeking his fifth straight crown in the 34th annual swim for members of this club.

Thirty Dolphin Clubbers have signed for the race. It is scheduled to start from the San Francisco side at 12:45 p. m. The tidal conditions have been figured to give the swimmers the best possible chance, but anything can happen as no one has ever been able to figure Father Neptune's tricks.

Harry Fields, a newcomer to Dolphin ranks, and a former gate swim winner as a member of the South End Rowing Club, has the best chance of beating Carmassi. Fields has speed and experience. With a break or two he could beat Ray.

Leonard Gelardi Jr., who, with his dad and uncles, Antone Gelardi and Gus Gelardi, keep this name foremost in Dolphin swimming circles, must be given consideration in this cold rough water race. Jim Morino, Joe Bruno and Clifford Quist, all with splendid records in this tough swimming trial, should be among the first flight to arrive at the Lime Point Rock finishing point.

Some of these Dolphin Clubbers have been making this annual corssing for more than 15 years. Ted Monell, Joe Weiss, Joe Bruno, Paul Silvester and "Big Bill" Mahood of the Oakland Police Department have all paddled across the gate so often they make it look easy. Actually, it is easy for good swimmers properly conditioned, but practically impossible for novice swimmers. A short, but tough mile separates San Francisco from Marin county.

A spectators boat will leave the foot of Hyde street at 11:30 a. m.

The list of starters follows:

Duncan Wins Gate Swim

For the second year in a row, former UC student Ed Duncan won the Dolphin Club's 49th Golden Gate Swim yesterday in 20:59. Fifteen of the 58 entrants did not finish.

The finishers:

Ed Duncan 20:59, John Parent 25:20, Bob Jimenez 25:46, Joe Flahaven 28:51, Frank Blair 28:51, Bob Farrell 28:51, Mike Milliman 29:28, Dan Osborn 30:09, Pierre Hathaway 32:27, Mark Haskell 32:28, Maj. Pacific Association Rowers Meet on Lake Merced Today

The championship regatta of the Pacific Assn. of Amateur Oarsmen today at Lake Merced may prove to be a two-fold preview for Bay Area rowing fans.

Firstly, the 60 to 70 participants from California and Nevada clubs consist mainly of high school and junior college students, many of whom soon will be trying for berths on University of California, Stanford and other college crews.

Secondly, the site is being touted for a rowing course should San Francisco ever secure the Olympic Games.

Entered in three classes each of sculls and fours are the favored San Diego Rowing Club, Nevada Boat Club, San Francisco, Rowing Club, Dolphin Boating Club, South End Rowing Club and the newly-formed Marin Rowing Club.

In addition to the regular races, all over a one-mile course ending at the new bridge, three special quarter-mile dashes are scheduled. These are for lightweight singles, open fours and senior singles.

San Diego's Stanley O'Neil will defend his Pacific Coast sculls championship in the regatta which begins at 12:30 p. m. Three Nevada youths, Bill Stitt, 17, Bobby Miller, 17, and Walter Hoover, 15-year-old son of the former Diamond Sculls champion, are expected to give O'Neil stiff competition.

Lake Merced Regatta Won By San Diego

The San Diego Rowing club won the annual regatta staged by the Pacific Association of Amateur Oarsmen at Lake Merced yesterday afternoon. The feature race of the day was the senior four won by the Dolphin Club over San Diego in one of the finest four-oared races ever witnessed in San Francisco. At the three-quarter mile mark the two crews appeared even, both rowing a 36 beat. Then the Dolphin crew raised its beat to close to 40 and pulled over the finish line a quarter of a length winner.

Individual star of the day was 15-year-old Walter Hoover Jr. of Lake Mead, Nev., who took the senior singles and two quarter-mile dash events. Young Hoover is the son of a former U. S. and Canadian rowing champion.

Rowing Races In Lake County

LAKEPORT, June 27.—A new entertainment feature—sculling and rowing—will be introduced to Lake County July 4.

Three San Francisco organizations—the Dolphin Rowing and swimming Club, South End Rowing Club, and San Francisco Rowing Club—and the Marin Rowing Club of Sausalito already have entered the competition. The San Diego Rowing Club and Nevada Boat Club of Las Vegas also may participate in the singles and four oared crew mile races.

The Independence Day celebration opens next Sunday with sixty-five of the west's fastest in-board power boats racing on Clear Lake. A three hour water ski carnival is scheduled Monday.

SF Rowing Clubs To Hold Regatta At Clear Lake

Four, possibly five, Bay Area rowing clubs will compete Tuesday on Clear lake as part of Lakeport's Independence Day celebration.

All races will be in barges and skiffs over a one-mile course with a turnabout at the half-mile point so that the start and finish lines coincide.

Clubs entered are the Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club, South End Rowing Club, San Francisco Rowing Club, Marin Rowing Club and possibly the Stanford Crew Assn.

There will be four classes of two events on the program: novice, junior, lightweight and senior singles and fours. The first race is at 12 noon.

Dolphin Club Holds Ladies' Day

The Dolphin Swimming and Boating Club holds a Ladies' Day program at its Aquatic Park Clubhouse today. There will be both rowing and swimming.

A spectators' boat will follow the six-oared barge race between the Dolphins and a South End crew, leaving from the foot of Hyde street at 12:30 p. m.
