ARIEL ROWING CLUB

The Ariel Rowing Club of San Francisco was organized in 1870, the oldest of the boat clubs on the coast. Eugene Flanders has served as Secretary for over sixty years. Because of the progress and development of the San Francisco Harbor during this long period, the Club has been compelled to erect, at different times, several new houses.

The Club has held many championships in past years. Henry C. Peterson carried the A. R. C. colors in races in England, Australia and completely over the United States and Canada. They were also carried in many races by the only family of four racing brothers of real championship caliber (Charles, Henry, Jim and Edward Wilson) rowing in singles, doubles and four-oared crews.

Present Club officers are: President, E. S. Sullivan; vice-president, J. C. Wolk; secretary, Eugene Flanders; treasurer, E. D. Sullivan; captain, J. McCormick; board of directors, Senator James A. Wilson, Ed Starke, Pete Beasley, Wm. De Mattei, Charles Andrus.

ALAMEDA BOATING CLUB

Located on the Oakland Estuary right near the spot where Ky Ebright and Russ Nagler produce their California Wonder Crews—Alameda, going strong before "Cal" took to rowing, was quick to sense the value of competition. They've profited by it heaps! Lee Cavanaugh, P.A.A.O. Rowing Commissioner, is largely responsible for the present rowing activities of the "A. B. C." His crews are ALWAYS contenders. Watch his Junior Crew today!

DOLPHIN SWIMMING & BOATING CLUB

The Dolphin Club stands out as a most colorful organization dating back to its foundation in 1878. The Club was founded by six members of the "Turnverein," interested in water sports and strengthening the ties of good fellowship and loyalty.

They've had, year after year, more than their share of star oarsmen, Tom Keenan, Charles Farrell, Alec Pape, Steve Vicini, Bill Harris, Tom Harris, Alec McKewan, Gus Bertrand, Jerry Kenniff, Bill Johnston, Dave Cameron, Fulton Figone and Bill Giovannoni.

They are here today with a complete list of entries headed by Captain Jim Albert and coached by the old time Champion Sculler Lawton Hughes.
