

(OBVERSE)

[At the left corner of the middle of the page, two written lines read:

‘PRINTED BANK PAPER
TORONTO FE. 20, 1858’]

[One black circular postmark at the top corner can be seen, which reads:

‘SANDWICH (wraps around in a circular manner)
FE 21
1858’
(bottom part of the postmark is blurry)]

[Another black circular postmark (top part is cut off, thus the location cannot be read) beside the postmark mentioned above reads:

‘(unknown location)
FE 21
1858
ON’]

George Bullock Esq
Treasurer
Sandwich (underlined)

[A black circular postmark under “George” reads:

‘TORONTO
FE 20
(blurry characters)’]

[Two other red postmarks can also be seen on the right side of the red circular postmark:

‘PAID’
and ‘CANADA
PAID (LOCK?)’]

[Hints of another black circular postmark can be seen at the bottom, as the part that is not cut off reads:

‘WINDSOR
FE’]

(REVERSE)

Bank of Upper Canada
Toronto, 20 Feb. 1858

Geo. Bullock Esq

Treasurer Sandwich (Sail?)

I beg to enclose my draft No. 2280 on for $44 in payment of [Sparkle?] School for (horizontal line indicating space) $44
less Bank charges (crossed out) (horizontal line indicating space) $

I remain

Your obedient Servant

[Hugh?] [Midow?]

Cashier.